From the London Gazette, Octob. 23. 1739.

GEORGE R.

OUR Will and Pleaſure is, that you attend the Proclamation of our Declaration of War againſt Spain, that is to be made on Tueſday the 23d Inſtant, in the uſual Places, and with the Solemnities cuſtomary on the like Occaſion: And for ſo doing this ſhall be your Warrant. Given at our Court at Kenſington the Nineteenth Day of October, 1739, in the Thirteenth Year of our Reign.

By His Majeſty's Command.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

To our truſty and well-beloved Servants, the Kings, Heralds, and Purſuivants of Arms.

St. James's, October 23.

The Officers of Arms, with the Serjeants at Arms and Trumpeters, mounted their Horſes in the Stable Yard, St. James's, and proceeded thence to the Palace Gate; Garter principal King of Arms, read His Majeſty's Declaration of War, and Norroy King of Arms, proclaimed it aloud; which being done, a Proceſſion was made to Charing-Croſs, as follows. A Party of Horſe-Guards or Grenadiers to clear the Way. Beadles of Weſtminſter bareheaded, with Staves, two and two. Conſtables of Weſtminſter in like Manner. High Conſtable of Weſtminſter, with his Staff. The Officers of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter on Horſeback, with white Wands. Clerk of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter. High Bailiff of Weſtminſter, and on his Right Hand the Deputy Steward. Knight Marſhal's Men. Knight Marſhal. Drums. Drum Major. Trumpets. Serjeant Trumpeter in his Collar, bearing his Mace. Purſuivants. Bluemantle. Rougedragon. Portcullis. Richmond Herald. Windſor Herald. York Herald, between two Serjeants at Arms. Somerſet Herald, between two Serjeants at Arms. Norroy King of Arms, between two Serjeants at Arms. Garter King of Arms, between two Serjeants at Arms. A Party or Troop of Horſe Guards commanded by Colonel Burton. At Charing-Croſs Norroy King of Arms read the Declaration, and Somerſet Herald proclaimed it aloud. In this Method the Proceſſion was made to Temple-Bar, where the Officers of the City of Weſtminſter retired, and within the Gate the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder and Sheriffs in Scarlet attended; and Bluemantle Purſuivant having preſented to his Lordſhip the Earl Marſhal's Warrant, the City Proceſſion followed the Troops commanded by Colonel Burton. At the End of Chancery-Lane, Somerſet Herald read the Declaration and York Herald proclaimed it aloud. At the End of Woodſtreet, where the Croſs formerly ſtood, York Herald read the Declaration, and Windſor Herald proclaimed it aloud. And, laſtly, at the Royal-Exchange, Windſor Herald read the Declaration, and Richmond Herald proclaimed it aloud. The Spectators expreſſed their Satisfaction by loud Acclamations of Joy at every Place.

His Majeſty's DECLARATION OF WAR Againſt the King of Spain.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS many unjuſt Seizures have been made, and Depredations carried on, for ſeveral Years, in the Weſt Indies, by Spaniſh Garda Coſtas, and other Ships, acting under the Commiſſion of the King of Spain, or his Governors, contrary to the Treaties ſubſiſting between Us and the Crown of Spain, and to the Law of Nations, to the great Prejudice of the lawful Trade and Commerce of our Subjects; and great Cruelties and Barbarities have been exerciſed on the Perſons of divers of our Subjects, whoſe Veſſels have been ſo ſeized; and the Britiſh Colours have been inſulted in the moſt ignominious Manner; and whereas we have cauſed frequent Complaints to be made to the King of Spain of theſe violent and unjuſt Proceedings, but no Satisfaction or Redreſs has been given for the ſame, notwithſtanding the many Promiſes made and Cedules iſſued, ſigned by the ſaid King, or by his Order for that Purpoſe; and whereas the Evils above-mentioned have been principally occaſioned by an unwarrantable Claim, and Pretention, ſet up, on the Part of Spain, that the Garda Coſtas, and other Ships, authorized by the King of Spain, may ſtop, detain, and ſearch the Ships and Veſſels of our Subjects navigating in the American Seas, contrary to the Liberty of Navigation, to which our Subjects have not only an equal Right with thoſe of the King of Spain, by the Law of Nations, but which is moreover expreſly acknowledged and declared to belong to them by the moſt ſolemn Treaties, and particularly by that concluded in the Year 1670: And whereas the ſaid groundleſs Claim and Pretenſion, and the unjuſt Practice of ſtopping, detaining, and ſearching Ships and Veſſels, navigating in the Seas of America, is not only of the moſt dangerous and deſtructive Conſequence to the lawful Commerce of our Subjects, bnt alſo tends to interrupt and obſtruct the free Intercourſe and Correſpondence between our Dominionsin Europe & our Colonies & Plantations in America, and by Means thereof, to deprive us of the Benefit of thoſe Colonies and Plantations; a Conſiderationof the higheſt Importance to Us, and our Kingdoms; and a Practice which muſt affect, in its Conſequence, all other Princes and States of Europe, poſſeſſed of Settlements in the Weſt Indies, or whoſe Subjects carry on any Trade thither: And wl ereas beſides the notorious Grounds of Complaint above-mentioned, many other Infractions have been made on the Part of Spain, of the ſeveral Treaties and Conventions ſubſiſting between Us and that Crown, and particularly of that concluded in the Year 1667, as well by the exorbitant Duties and Impoſitions laid upon the Trade and Commerce of our Subjects, as by the Breach of ancient and eſtabliſhed Privileges, ſtipulated for them by the ſaid Treaties; for the Redreſs of which Grievances, the ſtrongeſt Inſtances have been from time to time made, by our ſeveral Miniſters reſiding in Spain, without any Effect: And whereas a Convention, for making Reparation to our Subjects for the Loſſes ſuſtained by them, on account of the unjuſt Seizures and Depredations committed by the Spaniards in America, and in order to prevent for the future all the Grievances and Cauſes of Complaint therein taken Notice of, and to remove abſolutely and for ever, every thing which might give Occaſion thereto, was concluded between Us and the King of Spain, on the 14*th Day of January laſt,* N. S. by which it was ſtipulated, That a certain Sum of Money ſhould be paid at London, within a Term therein ſpecified, as a Balance admitted to be due, on the Part of Spain, to the Crown and Subjects of Great Britain, which Term expired on the 25*th Day of May laſt, and the Payment of the ſaid Sum was not made, according to the Stipulation for that purpoſe; by which Means the Convention abovementioned was manifeſtly violated and broken by the King of Spain, and our Subjects remained without any Satisfaction or Reparation for the many grievous Loſſes ſuſtained by them; and the Methods agreed upon by the ſaid Convention, in order to the obtaining future Security for the Trade and Navigation of our Subjects, are, contrary to good Faith, fruſtrated and defeated: In Conſequence of which, we found ourſelves obliged, for vindicating the Honour of our Crown, and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction for our injured Subjects, to order, That general Reprizals ſhould be granted againſt the King of Spain, his Vaſſals and Subjects, and their Ships, Goods and Effects; And whereas the Court of Spain has been induced to colour the open Violation of the Convention aforeſaid, by Reaſons and Pretences which are void of all Foundation; and at the ſame time, has not only publiſhed an Order, ſigned by the ſaid King, for ſeizing the Ships, Goods, and Effects belonging to us and our Subjects, where-ever they ſhall be met with, but has cauſed Seizures to be actually made of the Goods and Effects of our Subjects, reſiding in his Dominions, and has alſo ordered our ſaid Subjects to depart out of the Spaniſh Dominions, within a ſhort limited Time, contrary to the expreſs Stipulations of the Treaties between the two Crowns, even in the Caſe of a War actually declared. We have taken into our Royal and moſt ſerious Conſideration theſe Injuries, which have been offered to us and our Subjects, and the manifeſt Violation of the ſeveral Treaties ſubſiſting between the two Crowns; all which have been, in many Particulars, eluded, or evaded, by the unwarrantable Behaviour of the Court of Spain, and their Officers, notwithſtanding the repeated Inſtances we have given, of our Deſire to cultivate a good Underſtanding with the King of Spain, and the eſſential Proofs of our Friendſhip and Regard for him and his Family, which we have demonſtrated to all the World: And being fully ſatisfied, that the Honour of our Crown, the Intereſt of our Subjects, and that Regard which ought to be had to the moſt ſolemn Treaties, call upon us to make uſe of the Power which God has given us, for vindicating our undoubted Rights, and ſecuring to our loving Subjects the Privileges of Navigation and Commerce, to which they are juſtly entitled: We therefore, relying on the Help of Almighty God, who knows the Uprightneſs of our Intentions, have thought fit to declare, and do hereby declare War againſt the ſaid King of Spain: And we will, in Purſuance of ſuch Declaration, vigorouſly proſecute the ſaid War, being aſſured of the ready Concurrence and Aſſiſtance of all our loving Subjects, in ſo juſt a Cauſe, wherein the Honour of our Crown, the Maintenance of our ſolemn Treaties, and the Trade and Navigation of our Subjects (which are ſo eſſential to the Welfare and Proſperity of this Nation, and which we are determined, at all times, with our utmoſt Power, to preſerve and ſupport) are ſo greatly concerned: And we do hereby will and require our Generals and Commanders of our Forces, our Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain, our Lieutenants of our ſeveral Counties, Governours of our Forts and Garriſons, and all other Officers, and Soldiers under them, by Sea and Land, to do and execute all Acts of Hoſtility in the Proſecution of this War againſt the ſaid King of Spain, his Vaſſals and Subjects, and to oppoſe their Attempts: And we do hereby command, as well our own Subjects, as advertiſe all other Perſons, of what Nation ſoever, not to tranſport, or carry any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations or Countries of the ſaid King of Spain: Declaring, that whatſoever Ship or Veſſel ſhall be met withal, tranſporting or carrying any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations, or Countries of the ſaid King of Spain, the ſame being taken, ſhall be condemned as good and lawful Prize.* Given at Our Court at Kenſington the Nineteenth Day of October, 1739, in the Thirteenth of our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Oct. 25. Twelve Thouſand Fire-Arms, have been lately ſent to the Weſt-Indies, and 8000 more are ordered to be ready for the ſame Purpoſe.

When Windſor Herald at Arms read His Majeſty's Declaration of War againſt Spain, at the Royal Exchange, there was a Circumſtance that many People, who obſerved it, were greatly pleaſed with, viz. the Moment that he had pronounc'd the laſt Words, the Change Clock ſtruck, and the Chimes play'd

Britons ſtrike home,
Revenge, Revenge, your Country's Wrongs.

There was the greateſt Concourſe of People aſſembled between St. James's and the Royal Exchange, that ever was known; one would have imagined, that all the Inhabitants of the City of London and Weſtminſter, the the Burrough of Southwark and Places adjacent, were contracted in that Compaſs.

There are 14 Twenty Gun Ships almoſt finiſh'd, and will ſpeedily be commiſſion'd. They are to carry 8 Swivel Guns each, and 160 Men, which is 30 more than uſual.

We hear that Orders have been ſent from the Admiralty Office to his Majeſty's Yards, to fit out with all Expedition, the Sloops and other ſmall Veſſels belonging to his Majeſty; which 'tis ſuppos'd will be made uſe of to keep in awe the Privateers under Spaniſh Colours.

By a private Letter from Plymouth they write, that laſt Week three Men of War, two Bomb Ketches, and three Fire-ſhips, ſail'd from thence, in order to join Admiral Haddock's Squadron in the Mediterranean.

BOSTON, Jan. 21. Laſt Week Capt. Rhodes arrived here, from Holland, but laſt from Plymouth in England, in whom came ſeveral Letters to Gentlemen in Town, giving an Account, that they had a Confirmation of the News of Admiral Haddock's taking two Spaniſh Ships from Caraccas, vaſtly rich, each of them valued at a Million of Crowns Sterling. And Capt. Rhodes informs us, that a little before he ſail'd, a Sloop came into Plymouth, the Maſter of which declared, that he left the ſaid two Spaniſh Ships, under Convoy of two of our Men of War, off of Scilly, ſteering for one of the Engliſh Ports.

PHILADELPHIA.

We hear that laſt Thurſday was ſe'nnight, the Houſe of one Miller, of Wrights-Town, in Bucks County, took Fire, by Means of ſome Flax, and was burnt down to the Ground, with the Goods; and a Child of 4 Years old was unfortunately burnt to Death in the Houſe.

From Burlington we hear, that the Meeting-Houſe in the High Street there, was laſt Week burnt down by accidental Fire.

Laſt Friday Night the Houſe of Andrew Lockhart, of Benſalem, in Bucks County, took Fire by the Careleſneſs of a Girl, who being above Stairs with a Candle ſet Fire to ſome Tow. The Houſe was burnt down, and great Part of the Goods, and 60 Buſhels of Wheat and Oats.

About two Weeks before, the School-houſe of the ſame Townſhip, took fire accidentally, and was burnt down.

Private Letters from London, via Boſton, of the 30th of October, mention, That another Embargo is daily expected, the whole Engliſh Fleet being put in Commiſſion and ordered to Sea. That great Preparations for War are making in France, and that a Rupture with that Nation is generally apprehended.

WHEREAS

Perth-Amboy, Jan. 21. 1739, 40.

WHEREAS in a Cauſe depending in the Court of Chancery of New-Jerſey, at the Suit of the Creditors and Legatees of Charles Dunſtar, deceaſed, againſt Michael Kearney and James Alexander his Executors, upon Bill and Anſwer, it was on the eleventh Day of November laſt, adjudged, that the ſaid Executors had Power, by the laſt Will of the ſaid Charles Dunſtar, and alſo by his ſecond Codicil thereto annexed, to ſell the real Eſtate whereof the ſaid Charles Dunſtar died ſeized, for the Payment of his Debts & Legacies: And it was then decreed by the ſaid Court, that the ſaid Executors do make Sale thereof accordingly.

NOW in Obedience to the ſaid Decree, and for Performance of the ſaid Will and Codicil, which are recorded in the Secretary's Office at Perth-Amboy, Lib. B. of Wills, Fol. 37 to 43, the ſaid Michael Kearney and James Alexander do hereby give Notice, That on the ſecond Thurſday of March next to come, at the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon, at the Houſe of the Widow of Andrew Hay in Perth-Amboy, they will expoſe to Sale at publick Vendue, to the higheſt Bidder or Bidders, the real Eſtate whereof the Teſtator died ſeized, (except ſo much thereof as by his Will and Codicils he had ſpecifically deviſed) conſiſting of the four following Particulars, viz.

1ſt. All that Propriety of Eaſt New Jerſey, Right and Eſtate, which the Teſtator purchaſed of James Lord Drummond, by Deeds bearing Date the 16th and 17th of December, 1704, recorded in the Secretary's Office at Perth-Amboy, Lib. I. 78 to 89.

As to which the Executors by their ſaid Anſwer ſay, That it appears by the Records that two Quarters of that Propriety were ſold to other Perſons, before their Teſtator's ſaid Purchaſe.

2*dly*, All thoſe three quarters of a Propriety of Eaſt New-Jerſey, and all the Right and Eſtate which the Teſtator purchaſed of Archibald Campbell and James Blackwood, by their Deeds bearing Date the 18th Day of February, 1708, 9, and Indorſements thereon, recorded in the Secretary's Office at Perth-Amboy, in Lib. D. No. 2. Fol. 102 to 106, and Lib. E. No. 2. Fol. 298 to 302.

As to which the Executors by their ſaid Anſwer ſay, That the Records do mention, That One Thouſand Acres of this was ſold to Scott of Pitlochy, before the Teſtator's Purchaſe; and ſay farther, that the Teſtator ſold and gave away by Deeds in his Life, a conſiderable Part of this Purchaſe, to Value in the ſaid Anſwer mentioned.

3*dly*, All the Teſtator's Right to the One Half of the Eſtate formerly Joſeph Ormſton's in New Jerſey, by a Deed in Michael Kearney's Hands, under a Deed from Commiſſioners of Bankrupt, which Eſtate is ſaid to be the unappropriated Lands of Five Proprieties and a quarter of Eaſt Jerſey, and of Two Proprieties in Weſt-Jerſey.

As to which the Executors by their ſaid Anſwer ſay, becauſe they know not whether the Statutes concerning Bankrupts do extend or not, and becauſe of another Claim in the Anſwer mentioned, they are in doubt whether this be of any Value (tho' it coſt the Teſtator above twice as much as all his other Purchaſes abovementioned) but ſuch as it is the higheſt Bidder is to have it.

4thly, All the Teſtator's Right to Six Hundred Acres of Land in Eaſt New-Jerſey, conveyed to him by James Armour, by a Deed in Michael Kearney's Hands.

As to which the Executors by their Anſwer ſay, That a Part of this is claimed by other Perſons; and there's a Paper in Michael Kearney's Hands, purporting to be a Copy of a Bond from the Teſtator to James Armour, to pay him the third Part of the apprized Value of the ſaid Lands in three Years, or re-convey it to him. Which Sayings of the Executors on the ſeveral above Particulars, will more fully and particularly by their ſaid Anſwer appear, Reference being thereunto had.

TERMS OF SALE.

1ſt. The four Particulars above are to be ſet to Sale ſeparately.

2dly, Each Deed is to contain an Exception of all that was conveyed thereof by the Teſtator in his Life, or thoſe under whom he claimed, to any other Perſons than the Teſtator, before the Teſtator's Purchaſes aforeſaid reſpectively.

3dly. To contain alſo an Exception of ſuch Eſtate therein as was ſpecifically deviſed by the Teſtator, by his laſt Will aforeſaid, and the ſeveral Codicils thereto annexed.

4thly. The Deeds are to contain Covenants againſt the Acts and Deeds of the Grantors only.

And whereas if the Executors ſhould ſell upon Credit, it would be at their own Riſque, and they anſwerable preſently to the Creditors and Legatees for the Purchaſe Money, therefore they inſiſt 5thly, That the Purchaſe-Money be paid down in New-Jerſey Proclamation Money.

6thly, But if the Purchaſer has Right or Power to releaſe a Debt due by the Teſtator, or ſhall procure a Releaſe from One that has, it ſhall be allowed as ready Money.

7thly, Alſo if he who has a Right to a Legacy or Legacies, be a Purchaſor, or can procure a Releaſe of ſuch, the Proportion coming for ſuch Legacies, ſhall be allowed as ready Money.

8thly. If any of the four Particulars aforeſaid ſhall fall by Bidding to any Perſon not immediately paying ready Money, or Diſcounting Debts or Legacies as aforeſaid, his Purchaſe ſhall be not only void, but ſuch Particular ſhall be again put up to Sale, and he by his Bidding and theſe Preſents, aſſumes to pay all the Difference between the Sum by him bidden, and the Sum it ſhall be ſold for in ready Money, with the Charge of ſuch ſecond Sale.

If any Perſon, intending to be a Purchaſer on the above Terms, deſires further Information concerning the Premiſſes, they may ſee the chief Part of what the Executors knew concerning it, by their Anſwer in the ſaid Suit, which they will find filed of Record in Chancery at Perth-Amboy; or by a Copy thereof in each of the Executors Hands; and by a Sight of the Writings in their Hands reſpectively; or by a View of the Records at Perth-Amboy, where moſt of them are recorded, of which the Book and Leaf ſhall be given them by the ſaid Executors, as far as in their Power; and ſhall receive what further Information is in their Power to give.
